From Your President

What a month this has turned out to be. I think finally I will be able to unpack and get my laundry caught up after the wonderful fall tour that we just had. Thanks to the Brewers especially Jan who took the bull by the horns and set a great route, great hotel, and wonderful food.

To start out the month, I was Hershey, PA bound. Day one Monday October 7th, we (Fred JR and I) left at 7 a.m. and drove to Youngstown, OH. Day two we motored on to Hershey where I had a National Board of Directors meeting beginning a 5 p.m. at the Museum. It was to be over no later than 9. Well at 10:30 we wearily walked out. Lots going on in the future. Fred on the other hand got to attend the Library Yard Sale where he picked up interesting literature. Day 3 was our first flea market day. The weather was beautiful and all 900 spots were crammed full of parts. It's like a treasure hunt because you never know what the next booth holds. Wednesday night was Torquetober Fest at the Museum. They opened up the warehouse for participants to view the cars in the vault and served an American Buffet that went till nine. Nice time! It was such a nice night we went back to the car coral and wandered through the rows of cars for sale. Luckily nothing was calling our name. Day 4 Thursday, bet you guessed, the flea market. I got a short rest in the membership tent from 12 to 2 but even there we were busy. Day 5 Friday yep, flea market. Again all the weather was gorgeous. About 3 in the afternoon we got a warning that a weather front was moving in. I was to work membership from 4 to 5 so headed to the tent. There was enough wind that each of us held a tent pole to hold it down and rain to get us wet. But that only lasted an hour. Since most people just closed up after that we headed to the R & M Auction. I fell in love with a 33 Pierce Arrow Coupe, V-12, black and gorgeous, but Fred wouldn't buy it for me. I said it would take the place of Christmas, Birthdays, etc for a very long time but at $315,000 he didn't bite. Day 6 Saturday - What can I say 1,261 cars from Brass to Chrome, Steam to Electric, Two Cylinders to 16, American and Foreign. They were gorgeous. Fred judged HPOF and I was in admin and for me the greatest time is always when all drive off the show field. Nothing like the sounds, smells, and pure variety of the cars rolling in front of you. After the last had driven past we made a mad dash to Chocolate World to pick up our stash of chocolates to bring home. We drove back to Pittsburgh where we would meet my sister for brunch on Sunday. Both of us were on the east coast at the same time for once. After brunch on Sunday we drove to the outskirts of Chicago so that on Monday we could visit the Eastwood Factory Store in Alsip, IL. There were a few tools that they did not carry to Hershey but Fred wanted. Then on home late Monday.

It's pretty bad when we take Fred's pick up and the back seat is so full he had to put his suitcase in the pickup bed. Lots of literature, parts for Lizzy and Fieros, Models and the odd miscellaneous that you just couldn't leave. It was the one of the best Hershey's I've attended. If you plan to go next year now is the time to make your hotel reservations.

As the Fall Tour was about to take off, word was received that Barb Dunsworth and Ron Phillips had passed away. Please keep their families in your thoughts and prayers.
